This little board book is a must for children being raised in Spanish. It is a fun and silly one, with pictures they will love, and it is kind of educational being about opposites. I speak Spanish and my husband English, and our hope and goal is that our children are bilingual, so, having materials from the beginning in both languages is very important for us. This book doesn't feel like "let's grab the spanish book", but more natural like "let's play with this silly book!" and you use Spanish throughout as you would do if it were in any language. Learning two languages must feel natural in both languages, or one will always be 'the one you learnt' versus the natural one. (I am not only hoping for an ideal bilingual family, I have a doctorate in second languages :) and I work at an immersion school... And this is one of my picks!)

Small book easily gets ruined

Bueno.

Very cute book. It has the basic opposites of a board book and is great for learning and practicing Spanish. I would buy it again as a baby gift.

If you like playful, and that cover art delights you, so probably will everything Ms. Boynton has but her hand to. But here's a bonus: Many of her books are available as this one is: In separate English and Spanish editions. Then if you also are a dedicated reader with kids who MAYBE will become bilingual, these board books are a great addition to the love+cognition mix.

I love this book! I am a bilingual teacher and used this books as part of a writing unit. It has very simple text and adorable pictures. I liked it so much I bought it again for my nephew! Me encanta este libro! Soy una maestra bilingue y compre este libro para una unidad de redaccion. Tiene texto muy simple y dibujos adorables. Me encanta tanto que lo compre otra vez para mi sobrino!

Excellent book for children

It's ok for a small kid to have it as an extra, but nothing really special
